Kensington & Chelsea since 1996

An exquisite three bedroom lateral apartment newly renovated to an exceptionally high standard, offering sleek and spacious interiors that incorporate the latest in modern technology. The entrance hall with polished plaster and feature lighting is hugely impressive and sets a stylish and spacious tone that is continued throughout the apartment. The open plan living kitchen/dining/reception room provides fabulous entertaining space and opens onto a stunning terrace. The terrace, with views over Paddington Street Gardens, is incredibly private having been cleverly screened off by beautiful planting, complete with an irrigation system and an electric awning. There is an additional terrace off the master bedroom, which also encompasses an impeccably designed dressing room and luxurious bathroom boasting a free standing bath and separate rain shower. The glazed wall between the master bedroom and en suite bathroom has the option to be both transparent and opaque, giving the option to either make it a feature within the bedroom or provide more privacy. The apartment benefits from the rarity of two underground parking spaces and a long lease plus share of freehold. There are two further double bedroom suites, both with views over the building's pretty internal courtyard. In addition to the exquisite design, the flat is also hugely practical, with ample storage and a designated utilit[...]
